

Baroness Jeffers of Waldingham	Amanda	The widow of Lord Jeffers, who died in a powerboat accident. A flower power woman, inherited Waldingham Hall, an English Country seat, which she has converted to a luxury country house hotel in order to prevent it from being given the government and to bring in revenues, moving to a new custom house on the fringes of the wooded estate.
Marchioness of Timperley	Julie	The widow of the Marquess of Timperley, who died of heart failure while holding detail discussions with a woman who was not the Marchioness. Inherited Timperley Meon Manor, including 1,000 acres of estate with a vineyard in Hampshire, 7500 acres of moorland and forest in Argyll and Bute, complete with a hunting lodge, and a healthy revenue stream, plus her husband's investments in numerous mining and minerals businesses. Learning about international business, with help from The Baron (or the Red Baron as she calls him affectionately)
Lord Edgington	Henry	Neighbor of the Baroness. Hereditary peer with large country house, works as a stockbroker. Suffered from early onset prostate cancer which more or less removed his sex drive, and has consented to an open marriage to keep up appearances. Now a voyeur, sometimes watching as members of his staff engage in naughty activity.
Lady Edgington	Patricia	Neighbor of the Baroness. Works as a painter and home mural artist. Also a flower power woman, with a roving eye and a massive sex drive. Has a habit of consuming men one at a time, and then spitting them out.
The Honorable Julia Edgington	Julia	Youngest child of the Edgingtons. Artistically inclined like her mother, but is bi and has inherited her mother's sex drive, which has already gotten her into trouble at school and at college.
The Honorable Charles Edgington	Charles	Heir to the Baronetcy. Working in London as a currency trader. Rootless, with drug issues.
Jeffers Gardener	Stephen	Recommended to her by Lady Edgington, who had used him up - literally. Has great hands, and knows his way around the Baroness.
Jeffers Chef	Alessandro (Alex)	Another recommendation from a friend in London. From Italy, with Italian attention to detail, passion and a package to match.
Jeffers Pilot	Damien	Found by the Baroness at Cannes Airport when he dropped his business card on her table at the private lounge. Expert in all three phases of flight, and knows when to dominate and when to be agreeable. Lady Edgington and her friends occasionally take him for a flight, in more ways than one.
Jeffers Housekeeper 1	Irenka	A bright young thing from Slovakia, who is bi, and occasionally helps the Baroness to tame an unruly man.
Jeffers Office Manager	Karina	Classy and elegant, curvy 50s woman from Switzerland, fluent in several languages, including pussy eating and cum slurping. Sometimes auditions men for the Baroness.
Marchioness valet	Brian	The current man-servant for the Marchioness. Very conscientious and possessed of great perseverance (as the Marchioness likes to say in her coded language). The Baroness likes the cut of his jib, and is eager to test his mettle.
Marchioness housekeeper	Viktoria	From Slovakia, grandfathered UK resident visa from before Brexit. Found by Izzy in London after she was fired by her

		London family after being found in bed with the husband of the house and his other female lover. Worked for Izzy before Izzy passed her on to the Marchioness. Quiet and conscientious, but has a wild streak that surfaces from time to time.
Irina (Izzy) Antonelli	Irina	Anglo-Italian owner of a craft supplies business in London and Bristol. Friend of Lady Edgington. Bi under the radar, and a sub with men. Survivor of uterine cancer, chemo changed her food preferences and also her sex drive. Now loves to swallow or be splattered.
Edgington Housekeeper	Eduardo	Lady Edgington's Man From Spain, a 30s former male model with a significant package, who runs an efficient household and also provides generously for Lady Edgington and her guests as their needs arise.
Baron Hans von Beinhart	Hans	German aristocrat who the Baroness and the Marchioness met in Monaco at a birthday party. Tall, Teutonic, and sophisticated, polyglot (speaks German, English, French, Italian and Spanish, and fluent Bedroom). Widower, his wife having died in an automobile accident. Well-connected in European nobility and can often provide an amusing man or an arousing party in mainland Europe when asked. Helping the Marchioness with her overseas investments.
Princess Maria von Studtholtz	Maria	Friend of Baron von Beinhart. Early 40s former fashion model and playgirl, heir to an estate in German-speaking Switzerland. Very bi, with an eye for young girls and women who she can corrupt. Has many high-echelon friends of both sexes throughout Europe, and helps the Baron plan and hold his wild parties.
Edgington Art client	Poppy	late 40s woman whose husband is an absentee CEO. Has purchased several Edgington pictures for their house. Has become friends with Lady Edgington, and her and her next door neighbor have sampled Eduardo's wares on several occasions, sometimes together.
Poppy Neighbor	Andrea	early 50s art dealer based in London with a house in Warwickshire. White-blond tall curvy woman with massive broad breasts, who is bi-curious and has sampled Eduardo on multiple occasions, sometimes with Poppy. Now part of the European party circuit, which allows her to publicise her business to wealthy prospects, and sometimes to impress them in the bedroom...
Izzy Man Friend	Lawrence	Social escort for Izzy. Architect, separated from his wife due to his inability to keep his pants zipped. A classic bad boy.
Izzy Couple Friends 1	Kevin	Neighbors in the next street, Amie is bi and her and Izzy occasionally play together and with Kevin.
Izzy Couple Friends 1	Kevin	Neighbors in the next street, Amie is bi and her and Izzy occasionally play together and with Kevin.
Baron Business Manager	Sigrid	50s ex-corporate woman who organizes the Baron's social events. Pretends to be asexual, not interested in the scene, but has a deep secret that she has never revealed...
Timperley Lodge Manager	Fergus	50's outdoorsman who has been managing the lodge for 10+ years, since before the death of the Marquess. Superficially professional and buttoned-down, but has been quietly helping himself to the female staff at the lodge for many years. He and the Entertainment Manager have a surreptitious relationship, that also includes inviting bright young servers and lodge temporary female workers into their bedrooms for late night fun.
Timperley Lodge Entertainment Manager	Margo	late 40's woman who settled in Argyll and Bute after being divorced. Bi, under the radar, and is always delighted to be presented with a bright young thing by Fergus.